- If you do not know what class or show your child is in please refer to your RCD online registration portal or contact the office before purchasing time.

Costumes:

Costumes will be arriving throughout the rest of the season. Please do not be alarmed if your child's costume has not yet arrived. Shipping times vary dramatically by vendor and style.

Please refer to the name label on the costumes for QR codes linking to our hair and make up videos. Labels also include details on any specific accessories, tights and shoes required.

If your child's costume is sent home early, please keep it in a safe place until Dress rehearsal week; dancers should not wear or play in their costumes until after the recital.

Studio Dress rehearsal: (May 11 - 17)

This studio "dress rehearsal" is so the teachers can check that the dancers have all the necessary supplies/accessories to be prepared for the performance. Students should come to their regular class dressed in their costume with all accessories. Hair and make-up should also be completed to show the teacher.

Dress Rehearsal Week:

Date: Monday, May 11 - Sunday, May 17, 2026 during regularly scheduled classes

Location: Raincity Dance Studio

- Dancers attend class in full costume, complete with hair and makeup.
- For RAD ballet with 2 weekly classes please dress for the later class in the week.
- Hair and make-up tutorials links will be attached to your dancer's costume and on our website at the bottom of the Performances page.

Studio Portraits: (May 16 & 17 10:00-6:00pm, May 18 4:00-6:00pm)

Studio Portraits by David Marasigan will be offered again, so you can purchase some lovely keepsakes of your child in their costume. Registration for the individual photo sessions begins March 30 through the registration portal.

Recital Information Releases:

Recital information will be released throughout the season through 5 information sheets. Please expect details on ticket sales, rehearsal details, and show day schedules to be emailed and posted to our website as the year progresses.

Information sheets are archived on the website on the Performance Page for easy access.
